Non-verbal Behavior Analysis: Facial and Micro Expressions, Gestures & Postures

Workshop for Advanced Practitioners

Knowing how to read and interpret facial and micro expressions, gestures and postures, and how to encode and decode information is essential part of understanding human behavior.

Participants of this follow-up workshop will learn more about additional channels and categories of human communication:

- eye contact;
- gestures;
- posture;
- movement;
- facial expressions;
- personal appearance;
- physiological changes;
- proxemics;
- paralanguage;
- kinesics;
- artifacts; and
- touch.

The workshop includes numerous practical interactive exercises aimed at helping participants deepen their understanding of the subject matter discussed.

The workshop is available for the participants of the Basic Micro Expressions Workshop only.

The workshop will be in English.
